

A PLANET IMPERILLED BY PLASTIC

Rwandan-born designer Eli Amza Niyonzima presented his installation, 'We Are Under Attack', at an event in Granger Bay, Cape Town, this week to mark the end of 'plastic-free July'. It is a campaign by organisations such as The Beach Co-op, Twyg and WWF to raise awareness of plastic waste and pollution, particularly that caused by single-use earbuds, chip packets and bottles. Picture: Ruvan Boshoff